SALT LAKE

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Among the candidates for degrees at Yale are the following from Utah: Keith Smith, B. A., Manila, Utah; George of master of arts, William Dean Ambrose, B. A., Yale university, 1902, degree of B. L.

New York, Feb. 21.—The annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, comprising representatives from nearly every important paper in the United States, met at a three days session at the Waldorf-Astoria this morning. Mr. H. G. Whitely, of the Denver News and Mr. Joseph Lippman, of the Tribune were the Salt Lake representatives.

Tomorrow the entire convention will be entertained at luncheon in the new building of the Times. On Thursday they will inspect the plant of the Brooklyn Eagle and lunch there. Thursday evening the convention adjourns with an elaborate banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The Salt Lake Hardware company has bought out the business and good will of the Salt Lake Saddlery company. The transfer to be made shortly, and T. R. Black will remain with the hardware company. The terms of the transfer have not been made public.

Judge Armstrong last week approved the final account of the executors of the estate of Joseph R. Walker, who died in 1901. The account of the estate to the five heirs mentioned in the will of the deceased. The inventory of the estate shows that its value is $618,280.37.

Before Samuel Newhouse leaves Salt Lake for the east he will deposit a check for either $10,000 or $25,000 as a guarantee of good faith that he will build an electric light plant and furnish light to Salt Lake City at rates 25 to 50 per cent lower than those now charged by the present company.

"I am prepared to take up the work of erecting this light plant, individually," said Mr. Newhouse Wednesday, "and if granted the franchise, will not even ask any one to share the risk with me, but will build and run the plant myself."

"Salt Lake City has done much for me, and I believe that by doing this I can make some return for what I have received. I am fully aware of the many expenses attached to a lighting plant, but I believe that the present rates are entirely too high, and should come down, and I am willing to do my part toward helping bring them down."

"I am willing to furnish any sum from $50,000 to $100,000 to build and install a plant that will furnish adequate facilities for lighting Salt Lake City, and stand ready to begin work as soon as a franchise is granted me. Should the council see fit to grant me a franchise I will erect a plant that will be prepared to keep the lights of Salt Lake City going twenty-four hours a day, and with capacity enough to insure against the failure of lights should any part of the plant break down."

"The plant would be run by steam, and all smokestacks equipped with smoke consumers. This, coupled with the fact that the plant is prepared to furnish power to many small factories at low rates, would, I believe, tend to do away with much of the present smoke nuisance."

SUCCESS.

To succeed one must have high ideals, take no risks, confine business to its legitimate channels. All our clients are treated equally, and we will have no one in our employment who is rude, craft or untruthful. Our present quarters in the center of business are large, commodious and attractive. We needed them to keep pace with our growing business, which had to be systematically expanded. Each transaction is complete before our clients leave. He knows he will be notified when interest is due and principal payable. We have made money for thousands. That is the measure of our great success.

CATHEDRAL NOTES.

Rev. Frank Mannion of Eureka is a visitor in the city.

Ash Wednesday will occur on March 1st.

Easter Sunday will be on April 23.

Next Friday will be the first Friday and communion day for the members of the league of the Sacred Heart.

Services were held at the Utah state penitentiary last Sunday. Rev. Father Deane officiated and delivered a brief but eloquent sermon. Several members of the St. Cecilia choir rendered beautiful music with Miss Grace Sullivan as organist.

Mass was celebrated at the penitentiary this (Saturday) morning at 9:30. Rev. Father Deane was the celebrant and the St. Cecilia choir sang. Confessions were heard at the prison on Friday.

Mrs. Lindsay Rogers and Mrs. A. Fred Wey are the ladies appointed to attend to the altars this week.

The servers for the 8 o'clock mass next Sunday will be Vester Lauby and Ernest Creech; for the 9 o'clock mass William Murphy, Jr., and Daniel Armstrong; for the 11 o'clock mass the servers will be Norman Kane and Ernest Griffin. The torch bearers will be Frank Devine, Ernest McEntee, Frank O'Day, James Farrell, Jr., Robert Taylor, John Sloan, Donald Morrison, Walter McCann and George Curry, master of ceremonies. For benediction Ernest Creech, Vester Lauby, Basile Rogers, Lindsay Rogers and George Curry.

Requiem mass was celebrated on Friday morning for the repose of the soul of the late Miss Carrie Schiebel.

Rev. Father Cicchietti was at Sunnyside last week and among many other pastoral duties he performed the ceremony of marriage between Miss Janice Crisman and Mr. Frank Kraly. He spent a few days at Price and there married Miss Janice Kizman and Mr. Laika Boskovic.

The priests in charge at the cathedral are anxious for the children and the young girls and boys to go to confession on Saturday afternoon, and leave the evening hours for the older people particularly for the young people, who have so little time to attend church.

Under the zealous, energetic guidance of Rev. Father Deane, the sanctuary boys' society is fast becoming a permanent and splendid organization. The boys are giving evidence of careful training and take a warm interest in the work. At benediction last Sunday night the sanctuary presented a beautiful sight, with all the boys present before the altar. From the choir came the male chorus singing the vespers and in every way the services were impressive, but to return to the altar boys, they are certainly a credit to the cathedral and to the worthy director, Mr. Deane. The boys' society, until every Catholic lad in the city is under the banner of the Sanctuary Boys' society.

Miss Little will assist Miss Gleason with the Sunday rehearsal.

About twenty boys are required for the St. Patrick's concert, and the parents are requested to send them to rehearsal on Saturday. All the boys who took part last year are wanted for the coming concert and are requested to attend the rehearsal.

On St. Patrick's night, March 17, the annual concert for the benefit of the St. Ann's orphanage will take place in the Salt Lake Cathedral. The best local talent, together with the junior choir, will take part in the programme.

Pocahontas celebrated Washington's birthday by a social gathering of the Knights of Columbus. The third degree was conferred. Members of the order from Salt Lake and Ogden participated in the ceremonies. A full account will appear in next week's issue of the Inter Mountain Catholic.

The tickets for the concert will be on sale the coming week. The distribution of tickets and the business management will be in the hands of a committee of prominent gentlemen of the Cathedral parish.

REHEARSALS FOR CONCERTS.
The little ones practice at 2 o'clock Saturday; the young girls at 4 o'clock, and the boys at 5. The parents are earnestly requested to send their children to the rehearsals.

All the families will have rehearsals on Sunday at 1 o'clock sharp at Miss Gleason's residence.

The lullabies meet Sunday at 3 o'clock sharp at the same place.

The boys practice Saturday at 5 o'clock sharp.

All the young girls must attend the Sunday rehearsal at 4 o'clock.

The families must have their pictures taken Sunday, so the parents are requested to send them to Miss Gleason at 1 o'clock sharp.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.
Angus McKellar, Jr., has gone east on a business trip.

J. J. Daly has returned from a trip to the east.

Hon. M. F. Tarpey of San Francisco, formerly a national committeeman of the Golden state, is in town on a visit.

At the Kenyon hotel parlors last night a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland to the members of the legislature and prominent people of the state, prior to their departure for Washington. For four hours the parlors were a scene of merriment, nearly all the prominent leaders of society being present, as well as representatives of a large number of professions. The guests numbered 100, but owing to the size of the long drawing rooms, there was no overcrowding, and people came and went with freedom.

Decorations of the evening were the decorations which were elaborate and carried out in a beautiful design by palms and American beauty roses.

Assisting in the receiving were: Mrs. P. H. Deane, Mrs. Benner, C. Smith, Mrs. Samuel Park, Mrs. M. R. Stevens and Mrs. E. R. Sutherland. In charge of the punch bowls were Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Edith Hale, Miss Nellie Culbert, Miss Alice Paul, Miss Margie Miller and Miss June Blint.

Mrs. Martha Royce King, whose son Royce has been ill with diphtheria for several days past, is also suffering from the disease, but friends are glad to know that both Mrs. King and Royce are doing nicely.

Edmund Buckley, son of J. N. and Josephine Buckley, died Wednesday, aged 11 years.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Curtis and Mrs. E. Curtis will be home after today at 111 North Main street.

Ex-Chief of Police Farley of Denver was in the city during the week.

Miss Marguerite Harley has gone to San Francisco to visit Mrs. Marion Pitt Robinson, formerly of this city, but whose home is now in California.

John Conway, who was track foreman below Caliente, has gone to Durango to take a similar position with the Gould expedition.

Miss Katherine Early is contemplating the acceptance of a position in San Francisco.

Madam Vivian Jones' eyes have so improved that she is able to take her usual spring trip to New York for the Keith O'Brien company. She will return in a few weeks.

Frank E. McGurkin returned from a trip to the Atlantic coast yesterday. He was there three days and four nights making the trip from St. Louis. At Council Grove, Kan., the train on which he was making his westward journey was delayed twenty-three hours, caused by a wreck in which several engines ran together and were smashed.

The wreck was caused by cold weather and ice upon the rails of the road at Council Grove. Mr. McGurkin's brother, Manus McGurkin, is in every way the services were impressive, but to return to the altar boys, they are certainly a credit to the cathedral and to the worthy director, Mr. Deane. The boys' society, until every Catholic lad in the city is under the banner of the Sanctuary Boys' society.

Miss Myrle Evans and Miss Kate O'Rourke entered thirty friends at a Washington's birthday party Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Evans. They played progressive peanuts during the evening.

Obituary.

Death of Sister Assumption.

Sister Mary Assumption, a religious of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, died last week at the mother house in Notre Dame, Ind. The news of her death was received in great grief in Salt Lake, where she was for some time stationed at the Kearns St. Ann's orphanage. Her death is a sad loss to the order, and her sympathy extended to the community.

The deceased was a woman of very high attainments, and a highly accomplished musician. She sacrificed much in renouncing the pleasures of youth, but found her reward in the service of the Master.

She was a valued teacher in the several institutions of the Holy Cross order for many years, and finally when her health began to fail she came to St. Ann's in this city, where she enjoyed every moment of her life. The cause of God's orphaned little ones, she will be ever fondly remembered by the children and sisters of the institution.

Blessed are those who hear the message of the Eternal Word, and who walk with unflinching feet the path where His footsteps lead. Sister Assumption's example was an inspiration to all. Her life was filled with patient constancy to duty, with deeds and words of kindness. She was, in all things, the tokens of God's holy will and went calmly to her eternal rest secure in the knowledge that she was safe forever in the hands of her loving God.

May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace!

Caverly.

With deep regret did many friends in Salt Lake read of the death of Mrs. W. J. Caverly in Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Caverly and the children removed to Denver about four years ago, but many friends still remember the family, who have the most heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved husband and little ones.

The deceased was a beautiful woman in every sense of the word, beautiful of face and beautiful in mind, heart and soul.

She was the highest type of a sweet, earnest, Christian wife and mother, the gem in the hearts who mourn her heart-breaking.

Six children are left motherless, the oldest, Helene, is a beautiful handsome girl, being only 12 years old.

May God comfort the devoted husband, who must bravely bear his burden of grief for the sake of the dear ones left to his care by the loving wife and mother, who has gone to her merited reward.

Huddart.

Peter T. Huddart, manager of the Huddart Floral company, 214 East Second South street, died suddenly while being treated for nervousness, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Huddart had been taking a course of treatment at the Kenyon Turkish bath parlors, under the care of Dr. W. Fisher. He felt well enough to leave the parlors, and walk about the room and had finished a light meal when he fell fainting to his bed. Before medical assistance could be rendered he had died.

Mr. Huddart was born in England in 1864 and his father having been a florist, he followed his father's trade, and came to America in his youth and worked for a time in New York, later removing to Denver.

His brother, John Huddart, an architect, and sister, Mrs. E. J. Harte, are here.

Mr. Huddart came here nine years ago and went into the floral business. He was married six years ago and is survived by a wife and one child, Isabel, 4 years old.

He was a member of the Elks, the Commercial club and the A. O. U. W. The Inter Mountain Catholic extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

Mrs. Baker's Readings and "Everyman" Attended by the Pupils.

That reading is to literature what playing is to music, was effectively demonstrated by Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker in her recitation of last week in Barratt hall. And how many lines of culture must combine to the making of a perfect reader was also strikingly evidenced by the excellent performance of the pupils.

Who that speaks that speak to the eye, who that reads that read to the heart, for not by the alone the consummate excellence of speech alone did she captivate her listeners, but even as much by the things that speak to the eye.

Who that reads that speak to the eye, who that reads that read to the heart, for not by the alone the consummate excellence of speech alone did she captivate her listeners, but even as much by the things that speak to the eye.

Happy the author who finds such a reader, still happier the teacher who finds the classics of our language so excellently understood.

The children's hour was attended by a large number of pupils, and it was a most successful and profitable party to the members of the entire course.

The Legends of the Holy Grail, given the previous Saturday, was a grand introduction to the Arthurian legend, which the class in English literature had just entered upon a few days before.

While the Gospel of John, the last of the four, was a most interesting and cheerful in our reading, and the wisdom of eschewing all that is morbid and gloomy, and the subjects of these two recitals were decidedly Catholic in matter and in treatment, recalling to our minds an oft-heard statement, that though English literature is pervaded by an atmosphere of paganism, yet the fact remains that many of the best and sweetest things of non-Catholic power and nobility are Catholic in spirit and in effect.

Diverse as were the criticisms circulated about the play "Everyman," the members of St. Mary's academy who attended the matinee performance of Saturday were unanimous in their enthusiastic approval. Possibly the adverse comments were due to a lack of familiarity with the ideas and practices portrayed in the play; and if so, the convent girl had here a decided advantage over the worldly-wise sister. Besides, "Everyman" afforded those studying the history of the drama, a perfect example of the old morality plays, and their effectiveness in bringing home to the hearts of men the all-important truths so seldom pondered.

Acrostic.

(By Kate McDonough, '06.)
Washington! the greatest name
America can boast;
Secure forever in noblest fame,
Honored from coast to coast.
In perils fierce or dire distress,
Ne'er known to fail or pause;
God's hand is true to us to express
The foe and win the cause.
Oh, proud are we to keep the natal day!
Ne'er may his glorious memory fade away.
